we bow in humble submission to Providence, knowing that the human mind blindly groping in darkness fails to fathom the intricacies, the mysteries, or the motives of the Divine Master, Who shapeth the pathway of the universe and ordains all things to His own ends.

By the death of Mr Keys, Sharon Township loses and honest and trusted official, a leader who was ever ready to champion any measure that would advance the public welfare and who, by punctuality, industry and a fine conception of the necessities of the future, and a rare knowledge of the methods of attainment, endeared himself to his fellow workers.

Courageous yet conservative. A loyal friend, a safe councilor, and an efficient official. May the example of his life and character be emulated by those who follow after. To this end it is hereby ordered that this meager testimonial be embraced in the records of Sharon Township and a copy be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

There being no further business Board adjourned to meet the last Saturday in February at 1:30 P.M.
