Chief Tuchfarber advised that the Police Department would keep watch over it and asked that residents let the Police Department know when the activity occurs.

TRUSTEES

Old Business

Communications – Update

The draft newsletter is ready for review. The Trustees will review the newsletter and provide any comments or revisions.

Potential Annexation on Hanawalt Road - Update

The Township followed up with the City of Westerville about the property. The Township let Westerville know that the Mount Air Water District could provide water to the property.

Complaint Regarding Property on Old Woods Road - Update

Franklin County Zoning Inspector Patrick Young advised the property owner that a zoning permit was required for the plantings. But within the week, the property owner planted 17 pine trees on the property on the right of way and the water line. The Township will send a communication to the property owner about the issue regarding the location of the trees.

Worthington/Township Fire District – Update

No update.

Deer Population Control – Update

The Trustees discussed raising the issue with the Franklin County Township Association about a regional approach. There will be an article in the newsletter addressing the issue.
